LIME ROCK White Knuckle Hill 2007 Pinot Noir

Gold Medal - Winewise Small Vigneron Awards 2008
Top wine over $35, WineNZ magazine Winter 2009

We are thrilled with our success in a major tasting of Pinot Noir wines by WineNZ magazine.

"... the team at Lime Rock in Hawke's Bay are certainly doing their bit! Of the 94 wines we tasted, representing all of New Zealand's winemaking regions, the two top wines were from Lime Rock, a third made our short list and a fourth missed the cut by just half of one point! .....it looks like Hawke's Bay could be the new kid on the Pinot Noir block."

'Lime Rock are to be congratulated: they have produced three outstanding Pinot Noirs of our tasting'

The White Knuckle Hill description.....

"Lively vibrant fruit on the nose with notes of liquorice and spice. A dense palate here with pure blackberry and very ripe dark-cherry fruit, coffee-chocolate and spice. Sweet, concentrated and lush in the mouth with excellent complexity and wafts of fresh raspberries coming through. The considerable oak is seamlessly integrated with satin-smooth tannins. This just feels sooo nice in the mouth!"

2009 was another great vintage for us.

Dry with warm days and, as we say....

'Even our pickers are handpicked.'

Our thanks goes to the great work that Becs and the team at Matariki do, tending our wines, from grapes to bottle.

The Landscape of New Zealand Wine

By Kevin Judd and Bob Campbell

Just published. We feel very honoured that our LIME ROCK vineyard is featured on the front cover and with two photos within. Kevin phoned from Wairoa, May 2008, to ask about the weather as he was travelling south. Grey, I said. Grey here, he said. But by the time he arrived the sun was on the hills. The book is for sale at cellar door for $79.95.
